Mission Statement
We the members of The Cathedral of St. Patrick, through the mercy of God the Father, the grace of Jesus Christ, and the power of the Holy Spirit, seek to grow continually in knowledge of and love for God. We strive to enable ongoing conversion to Christ of our adults, to inspire faith in our children, and to be witnesses of His love in the greater community.

He said to them, “Do not be amazed! You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Behold the place where they laid him. But go and tell his disciples and Peter, ‘He is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him, as he told you.’” - Mark 16: 6-7

Prelude: Prelude in G, BWV 541—JS Bach (1685-1750)

Entrance Hymn: Antiphon before the 1st verse and after the 4th verse:

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia!

1. The strife is o'er, the battle done; the victory of life is won; the song of triumph has begun. Al-le-lu-ia!
2. The powers of death have done their worst, but Christ their legions hath dispersed; let shouts of holy joy burst. Al-le-lu-ia!
3. The three sad days are quickly sped; he riseth glorious from the dead; all glory to our risen head. Al-le-lu-ia!
4. Lord, by the stripes that wounded thee, from death's dread sting thy servants free, that we may live and sing to thee. Al-le-lu-ia!

Word: Latin, 1095; trans. Francis Pott (1832-1889)
Music: VICTORE, Girolamo Palestrina (1525-1594), adapt. William Henry Monk (1823-1869)

Introit (11): Plainsong, Mode IV; Psalm 139:18, 5, 6

Resurrexisti, et adluct tecum sum, alleluia: posuisti super me manum tuam, alleluia: mirabilis facta est scientia tua, alleluia, alleluia.

I arose, and am still with you, alleluia; You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia; Your knowledge is become wonderful, alleluia, alleluia.

Kyrie: (7:30, 9, 12:30):

Kyrie eleison. iij Christe eleison. iij

(11) Missa Sancti Gabrieliis.—Johann Michael Haydn (1737-1806)

Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.

Gloria: (7:30, 9, 12:30):

6. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
(11) Missa Sancta Gabrieli-Johann Michael Haydn (1737-1806)
Gloria in excelsis Deo et in terra pax hominibus bonae voluntatis. Laudamus te, benedicimus te, adoramus te, glorificamus te, gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam, Domine Deus, Rex caelestis, Deus Pater omnipotens. Domine Fili unigenite, Jesu Christe, Domine Deus, Agnus Dei, Filius Patris, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis; qui tollis peccata mundi, suscepe deprecationem nostram; qui sedes ad dexteram Patris, miserere nobis. Quoniam tu solus Sanctus, tu solus Dominus, tu solus Altissimus, Jesu Christe, cum Sancto Spiritu: in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43
Peter proceeded to speak and said: “You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for we are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever. Let the house of Israel say, “His mercy endures forever.” R. “The right hand of the LORD has struck with power; the right hand of the LORD is exalted. I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.” R. The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the LORD has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes. R.

Second Reading: Col 3:1-4
Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Sequence

Let Christians offer sacrificial praise to the Pasover victim. The lamb has redeemed the sheep: The Innocent Christ has reconciled the sinner to the Father. Death and life contend in a spectacular battle: the Prince of life, who died, reigned alive. Tell us, Mary, what did you see on the road? I saw the tomb of the living Christ and the glory of his rising, The angelic witnesses, the clothes and their shroud." "Christ my hope is risen; into Galilee, he will go before his own." We know Christ is truly risen from the dead! To us, victorious King, have mercy! Amen. Alleluia.

ALLELUIA:

GOSPEL: IN 20:1-9
On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial clothes there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial clothes there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial clothes but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL PROMISES:

The celebrant addresses the faithful:

Dear brethren, through the Paschal Mystery we have been buried with Christ in Baptism, so that we may walk with him in newness of life. And so, now that our Lenten observance is concluded, let us renew the promises of Holy Baptism by which we once renounced Satan and his works and promised to serve God in the holy Catholic Church. And so I ask you: Do you reject Satan? R/. I do. And all his works? R/. I do. And all his empty show? R/. I do. Do you believe in God, the Father almighty Creator of heaven and earth? R/. I do. Do you believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary, suffered death and was buried, rose again from the dead and is seated at the right hand of the Father? R/. I do. Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting? R/. I do. And may almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us new birth by water and the Holy Spirit and bestowed on us forgiveness of our sins, keep us by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord, for eternal life. R/. Amen.

The celebrant then sprinkles the congregation with blessed water while all sing the following:

I saw water issuing forth from the Temple, on the right side, alleluia; and all those to whom this water came obtained salvation and they exclaimed: Alleluia, alleluia.

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON (11): Plenitudo, Mode IV; Ps 76:9, 10
Terra tremuit et quieuit, dum resurrexit in iudicio Deus, alleluia. The earth trembled and was still when God arose in judgment, alleluia.

OFFERTORY MOTET (11) Sugens Jesu–Peter Phillips (1560-1628)

The risen Jesus, our Lord, standing in the midst of his disciples, said: Peace be with you. Alleluia. The disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Alleluia

(12:30): Regina Cæli–Marc-Antoine Charpentier (1643-1704)

Queen of Heaven rejoice, alleluia, for he whom you did merit to bear, has risen as he said. Pray for us to God, alleluia.

OFFERTORY HYMN (7:30, 9, 12:30):

1. Christ, the Lord, is ris’n to day, Al - le - lu - ia! Sons of men and an - gel - s, say, Al - le - lu - ia!
2. Lives a - gain our glo - rious King; Al - le - lu - ia! Where’s, O death, is now thy sting? Al - le - lu - ia!
3. Love’s re-deem - ing work is done, Al - le - lu - ia! Fought the fight, the battle won, Al - le - lu - ia!
4. Soar we now where Christ has led, Al - le - lu - ia! Following our ex - alt - ed head, Al - le - lu - ia!

Raise your joys and tri - umphs high, Al - le - lu - ia! Sing, ye heav’n’s and earth re - ply, Al - le - lu - ia!
Once He died our souls to save, Al - le - lu - ia! Where thy vic - to - ry, O grave? Al - le - lu - ia!
Death in vain for - bids, heav’n’s rise, Al - le - lu - ia! Christ has o - pened pa - ra - dye, Al - le - lu - ia!
Made like him, like him . . . . . . rise, Al - le - lu - ia! Ours the cross, the grave, the . . . . . . . sides, Al - le - lu - ia!

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788)
Music: LLANFAIR, John Roberts (1822-1877)
SANCTUS: (7:30, 9, 12:30)

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.  Hosanna in the highest.

(11) Mass VIII (de Angelis)

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

AGNUS DEI: (7:30, 9, 12:30)

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

(11) Missa Sancti Gabrielis–Johann Michael Haydn (1737-1806)

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona nobis pacem.

Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Christ our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed. Let us keep this feast with joy: alleluia, alleluia.

COMMUNION CHANT: Plainsong, Mode VI, I Cor 5:7, 8

Pascha nostrum immolatus est Christus, alleluia: itaque epulemur in aeternum in sinceritate, et veritatis, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Christ our Paschal lamb is sacrificed, alleluia: therefore let us feast with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

COMMUNION MOTET: (9) Regina Caeli–Marc-Antoine Charpentier (1643-1704)

Queen of Heaven rejoice, alleluia, for he whom you did merit to bear, has risen as he said. Pray for us to God, alleluia.

DISMISSAL:

Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
DIACONATE FORMATION

Considering the Diaconate? If you are interested in the possibility of being formed as a Permanent Deacon in the Diocese of Charlotte, you must make initial contact with Deacon Ed Konarski at Eward.Konarski@charlottediocese.org by July 15, 2021. Only those men who appear to have a genuine call to formation as a Deacon will be invited by the Formation Team to complete application for admission to the next formation class. The norms required for application to the formation program can be found on the Diocese of Charlotte website at www.charlottediocese.org/permanent-diaconate/permanent-diaconate/ and then clicking on Application Norms. Please review these norms closely.

Children ordinarily receive First Holy Communion in second grade. The Diocese requires a child participate in one full year of faith formation in a parish or school setting before their First Holy Communion year. For more information, visit the parish website at www.stpatricks.org/first-communion or contact Emily Clary in the parish office at (704) 334-2283 ext. 413 or via e-mail: eclary@stpatricks.org

CONFIRMATION

Confirmation for children is available to rising 9th grade students who have completed at least two years of religious education. Classes meet twice a month on Sunday, 10:15—11:30 am. For more information, please visit www.stpatricks.org/confirmation or contact Emily Clary in the parish office at (704) 334-2283 ext. 413 or via e-mail: eclary@stpatricks.org

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA) is a formation program for adults interested in becoming Catholic or Catholics hoping to complete the Sacraments of Initiation. Classes meet on Wednesday evenings from 7—8:30 pm. For more information, visit the parish website at www.stpatricks.org/rcia or contact Trent Lucas at 704-942-8521 or ltarheel11@yahoo.com

I Am the True Vine

“"I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that bears no fruit, he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. You are already made clean by the word which I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If a man does not abide in me, he is cast forth as a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love” (John 15:1-10).

In the last edition of this series, Jesus is the vine to which we, if we are lucky enough to achieve eternal salvation, must be connected to as the branches. In the Old Testament (Isaiah 5, Jeremiah 2 and Ezekiel 19 to name a few), Israel is often called the vine, or the vineyard, of God. But that vineyard grows foul, does not produce, and the vines dry up. Jesus is the one true vine, the one vine of the Father, the Vinedresser that lasts forever and is without blemish. But Jesus and the Father want to share with us, and if we will be grafted onto the vine as branches, through Baptism, and continue by following His commandments. There is a danger if we do not abide in Him of being cut off. If we do not cultivate the gifts He gives us, and live only for ourselves, we will be cut off from Him. Like branches in real life that fall to the ground, we will wither up and die. It is only through this supernatural union with Him that we can receive grace and ultimately salvation.

The final miracle we will talk about, the miracle connected to Jesus as the true vine, is the wedding feast at Cana. Jesus turns water into wine. And not just any wine, the best wine because He is the one, true vine, from whom comes not just wine, but the waters of eternal life. He produces fruit not just in the material sense as He did at the wedding, but spiritually in our lives, and gives us the grace to help affect others. The Sacrament attached to this is, not surprisingly, Holy Matrimony. This couple invited Jesus to their wedding, we should invite Jesus not just to our wedding, but to every part of our marriages. Ven. Fulton Sheen wrote a book called Three to Get Married about how if we are to truly love, we must invite God into our marriage. To love our spouse more than God might sound nice in a mushy way, but it makes them an idol and in the end only leads to heartbreak and disappointment. Loving God above our spouse actually helps us to love our spouse more. Another book to read on this is Sheldon Vanauken’s A Severe Mercy, a spiritual autobiography about a husband and wife who realized they needed to put God before each other and learned to love each other anymore and deal with even sickness and death.

John’s Gospel tells us that HE IS THE TRUE VINE

John’s Gospel uses Signs and “I Am” statements to SHOW us that Jesus is God. Unlike the other three synoptic Gospels, which tell us the Good News, John SHOWS us the Good News!

Jesus told them, “Fill the jars with water.” So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, “Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter.” So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from (although the servers who had drawn the water knew), the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, “Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now.” John 2: 6-10

We are ending our Lenten season with Jesus’ first miracle. Jesus knew the importance of the wedding with His friends. This celebration was worthy of His help.

This first miracle began Jesus’ three-year ministry and mission. This began His work to spread the good news that the Kingdom of God is at hand--God was about to save the world!
Sunday, April 4: St. Benedict the Moor—Confessor
St. Benedict was born into slavery in San Fratello, Italy in 1526. After being freed by his master, he became a hermit and resided at Montepellegrino where his fellow hermits elected him as their superior. He later became a Franciscan lay brother and served as a cook at St. Mary’s Convent in Palermo. Benedict was elected superior of the convent but stepped aside to become novice master and eventually returned to being the cook out of his strong personal humility. Was a popular confessor and known to work miracles.

Monday, April 5: St. Vincent Ferrer—Confessor
St. Vincent Ferrer was born on January 23, 1357 in Valencia, Spain. At the age of 19, he joined the Dominican Order despite opposition from his parents. He was ordained to the priesthood and soon made Prior of the Dominican House in Valencia. Vincent became a fervent missionary and produced numerous conversions, making travels across the European continent to preach the Gospel in Spain, France, Germany, England, Ireland, Scotland, Italy, and other nations. Vincent became active in working to end the Western schism which had plagued the Church since 1378 and resulted in competing claims to the papacy. He eventually decided that his friend, and the bishop who ordained him, Benedict XIII, wasn’t the true pope. He persuaded Benedict to step aside and end the schism.

Tuesday, April 6: Bl. Pierina Morosini—Virgin and Martyr
Bl. Pierina Morosini was born to a poor family in Bergamo, Italy on January 7, 1931. She received education as a seamstress and labored in a fabric factory for eleven years. As a young girl she made a vow of chastity and served as a catechist for children. One day while she was walking home from work, she was attacked by a man who was intent on raping her. Pierina resisted and protected her chastity. The man became enraged and stoned her to death. She passed away two days later from her injuries on April 6, 1957.

Wednesday, April 7: St. Celsus—Bishop
St. Celsus, also known as Ceallach mac Aedha, was born in Armagh, Ireland in 1080. He was the son of Áed, the Bishop of Armagh, and inherited leadership of his father’s see upon his death in 1105. As bishop, Celsus implemented numerous reforms, including the elimination of the hereditary passing on of the bishopric. Celsus was a friend of St. Malachy and he appointed Malachy to be his successor while on his deathbed.

Thursday, April 8: St. Aedesius—Martyr
St. Aedesius, brother of St. Apphian, was born in Patara, Turkey sometime during the third century. He was a pagan philosopher who converted to Christianity. Aedesius was arrested several times for publicly professing his Christian faith. Following his most recent release, he relocated to Egypt. While there he witnessed Christian virgins being sent to brothels for punishment. Aedesius protested this before the local judge who then subjected him to torture and drowning on April 8, 306 in Alexandria, Egypt.

Friday, April 9: St. Waldetrudis
St. Waldetrudis was raised in a holy family during the seventh century. Both of her parents, her sister, her husband and her children were all canonized saints. She married a nobleman named St. Vincent Madelgarius, the Count of Hainault, with whom she had four children. After their children had grown, Vincent became a monk and joined a monastery in Hautmont, France. Waldetrudis founded a convent at Chateaulieu where she lived as an ordinary member instead of its superior. The town of Mons, Belgium eventually grew around the convent.

Saturday, April 10: Bl. Anthony Neyrot—Penitent and Martyr
Bl. Anthony Neyrot was born in Rivoli, Italy in 1425. He joined the Dominicans and was ordained a priest. After some time ministering at San Marco Church in Florence, he requested and was granted transfer to Sicily. While en route there, his ship was boarded by Muslim pirates and Anthony was imprisoned. To save himself from this imprisonment, Anthony apostatized and became a Muslim. He married the daughter of the caliph and worked on a translation of the Qur’an to Latin. Following the death of his mother, Anthony regretted abandoning Christ. He immediately sought out a Dominican priest in Tunisia and confessed his sin of apostasy. Anthony was readmitted into the Dominican order and went out into the streets proclaiming Christ. The caliph witnessed this and had Anthony stoned to death on Holy Thursday in 1460.
BECOME A PARISHIONER

Church membership is an obligation of discipleship and love that derives from being united with Christ. At the Cathedral, active membership is a requirement for the celebration of a marriage or baptism, for one to be eligible to be a Godparent or Conformation sponsor, and for special benefits such as tuition subsidy at a Catholic school. There are certain minimum requirements for parish membership called the precepts of the Church. The following are three of those precepts and how we look upon them in relation to parish membership.

ATTENDANCE AT WEEKLY MASS. The first precept of the Church requires the faithful to participate in the Eucharistic celebration when the Christian community gathers together on the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord (CCC #2042) and on holy days of obligation (CCC #2043). Since the Cathedral’s weekly Mass attendance envelopes are the primary way we determine if parishioners are regularly attending Mass, parishioners must place their envelopes in the collection basket every Sunday regardless of whether one makes a financial contribution or donates online.

RECEIPT OF THE SACRAMENTS. The third and fourth precept of the Church state that the faithful must ensure preparation for the Eucharist by the reception of the Sacrament of Penance at least once a year, and the reception of Holy Communion at least once a year during the Easter season (CCC #2042) and to join in fast and abstinence during Lent.

SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH. The fifth precept of the Church states that the faithful have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to their abilities in a regular, identifiable and meaningful way.

HOW TO REGISTER AS A PARISHIONER

MIRA Via Outreach Center

Over the past 27 years, MiraVia, a Catholic, non-profit charity, has called Weona Avenue in Charlotte “home.” Before MiraVia’s College Residence was built at Bel-mont Abbey College, pregnant women were welcomed to this five-bedroom house. Since then, it has transformed into the bustling Outreach Center that it is today. However, with the land around them being rapidly developed, MiraVia must find a “new home” for the Outreach Center. Thanks to a generous anonymous donor, MiraVia will receive $50,000 if an additional $50,000 is raised by Divine Mercy Sunday on April 11, 2021. Your gift will be automatically doubled and 100% of your contribution will be used towards MiraVia’s Outreach Center relocation project. To make a donation, visit www.MiraVia.org
