Mission Statement

We the members of The Cathedral of St. Patrick, through the mercy of God the Father, the grace of Jesus Christ, and the power of the Holy Spirit, seek to grow continually in knowledge of and love for God. We strive to enable ongoing conversion to Christ of our adults, to inspire faith in our children, and to be witnesses of His love in the greater community.

Solidarity

There is a lot of talk these days amongst our political elite about unity. During every political party change, rhetoric is thrown around by the winning side about uniting towards a common goal, as we actually become more fractious than ever. Guilt, resentment, identity politics, and sin are used to drive wedges between us based on race, our economic status, our national identity, and our ideological differences. But despite all of this, we are one human family, descended from Adam and Eve. Every single person we will ever meet is in some distant way our brother or sister. We cannot be like Cain; we are our brother’s keepers. Whether it is someone down the street or someone across the globe, any suffering that comes to anyone in the world is suffering amongst our family. We need to be our brother’s keepers by bringing about true unity amongst the human race, the children of God. To do this we must have solidarity between all the different peoples, recognizing each of our fellow humans not as a member of some social or ethnic group, but as an individual, created in the image and likeness of God, and part of His family and plan.

People today think of solidarity as a feeling of empathy for those suffering. As long as you feel bad about the strife in the world, or even better tell others that you feel bad and care about it, you are somehow working magically towards fixing problems. But the saints know better, “Solidarity is not a feeling of vague compassion or shallow distress at the misfortunes of so many people, both near and far. On the contrary, it is a firm and persevering determination to commit oneself to the common good; that is to say, to the good of all and of each individual, because we are all really responsible for all” (Pope St. John Paul II, On Social Concern, 38). To truly work for solidarity, we cannot have pie in the sky hopes and calls for solving problems, but a true resolve to get out there and get our hands dirty by helping our fellow man. To do this, we must work for peace amidst all the violence of the world. One may think that being merciful is the greatest way to achieve peace but, we must also be just and do everything we can to create a just society. The core of solidarity is the virtue of justice. As Pope St. Paul VI said, “If you want peace, work for justice.”

Early in Genesis, we see that Eve was named so because she would become the mother of all the living (Eve in Hebrew is similar to the word for living). Later, in Genesis 12, God blesses Abram (later Abraham) and through him says that all nations will be blessed. God chose Israel and singled them out, but it was not for their own sake, but the sake of all humanity that He did so. In Psalm 72, a prayer for a just king, the psalmist asks the Lord for a king who will protect his subjects, especially those who are poor and suffering. The king who lives in a correct relationship with God and with others will bring peace to his land. In Psalm 122, David asks for peace and for the good of all for the Lord’s sake and also for the sake of his brothers. In the New Testament, Christ says in the Beatitudes that the peacemakers shall be called children of God. He demands that we make peace with our brother before receiving Him in Communion, because if we are not in solidarity with our brother how can we be in solidarity with God. This is also mentioned by St. John, “If any one says, ‘I love God,’ and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen” (1 John 4:20). St. Paul talks about solidarity on many occasions, most notably in 1 Corinthians 12, where he says that if any member of the Body of Christ suffers, we all suffer, whereas if any are honored, we are all honored.

SAINTS IN TRAINING

Saints Damien & Mariane Cope teach us about Solidarity

Two of the Hawaiian Islands’ most popular saints are St. Damien of Molokai (1840-89) and St. Marianne Cope (1838-1918). Damien was born in Belgium, joined the SS.CC community, and volunteered to be a missionary in Hawaii. He was ordained a priest in 1864 in Honolulu’s Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace. He worked for a time on the Big Island, and then volunteered to spend the last 16 years of his life caring for the lepers confined to the Kalaupapa and Kalawao regions on the north side of Molokai Island. He eventually contracted and died of the disease in 1889.

Conditions in the leper colony of Molokai were harsh when he arrived in 1873, with few primitive dwellings and a might-makes-right system of governance. Stronger residents could assault weaker ones without fear of consequence. For the next 16 years, St. Damien helped bring civility, a better standard of living, and the Catholic faith to the settlement, so that “a place of despair” was transformed into one that was “tolerable or even pleasant.”

Marianne was a Sister of St. Francis of Syracuse, New York. She volunteered to come to Molokai with a small group of her sisters, cared for Damien during the final months of his life, and continued his ministry after his death.

“It was their illness that prompted Damien and Marianne to respond to them out of Christian charity and compassion. It led to their becoming saints.”
Sunday, February 7: Bl. Felipe Ripoll Morata—Priest and Martyr
Bl. Felipe Ripoll Morata was born to a poor family in Teruel, Spain on September 14, 1878. Following his ordination as a priest, he served as a professor, spiritual director, and later as rector in the diocesan seminary. He was then appointed Vicar General for the diocese. In 1938, the Republican Army began a persecution against Catholics in Spain. Felipe’s bishop condemned the persecutions and was arrested. Felipe was soon arrested as well. After being imprisoned for 13 months, Felipe and his bishop were shot to death on February 7, 1939.

Monday, February 8: St. Josephine Bakhita—Virgin
St. Josephine was born in 1869 in the village of Olgossa in Sudan. When she was seven years old, she was kidnapped and forced into slavery. Josephine ended up being bought and sold over ten times, and was regularly beaten severely by her masters. Eventually she ended up in a kinder home, and was placed under the care of the religious sisters at the Institute of St. Magdalene of Canossa. While there, she came to learn more about God, and received the Sacraments of Initiation as a Catholic in 1890. In 1893, she became a religious sister and resided in a convent at Schio for the rest of her life. Rather than harbor animosity toward her original kidnappers, she thanked them for leading her to the path of Christ and His Church.

Tuesday, February 9: Bl. Anne Catherine Emmerick—Virgin and Mystic
Bl. Anne Catherine Emmerick was born to a poor peasant family in Flamsche, Germany on September 8, 1774. Anne was very devout and attended Mass every day. She spent her evenings in prayer for long hours at home before departing outside the village to pray the Stations of the Cross by candlelight. When she was 28 years old she joined an Augustinian convent. Nine years later her convent was shut down by Napoleon. Anne soon became ill and spent the remainder of her life confined to her bed. She experienced mystical visions and acquired the stigmata.

Wednesday, February 10: St. William of Maleval—Hermit
St. William was born in Poitiers, France sometime during the late 11th century. After living a worldly life, William traveled to Rome where he met with Pope Bl. Eugene III. The pope told him to make a pilgrimage to the Holy Land to atone for his sins. Following his pilgrimage, William lived as a hermit. He then became abbot of a monastery in Pisa but left after unsuccessfully trying to implement reforms. He became a hermit once again and attracted a large following who became the Hermits of St. William, or Gulielmites. William is said to have worked numerous miracles.

Thursday, February 11: St. Benedict of Aniane—Confessor
St. Benedict of Anian was born to a noble Visigoth family around the year 745 in France. After serving as cupbearer to Charlemagne he left the royal court and entered the religious life. He joined the monastery of St. Sequanus near Dijon, France. Benedict later became a hermit on his family estate and lived along the Aniane River. He compiled the Rule of St. Benedict into the Concordia regularum. Benedict led the synod of Aachen in 817, at the request of King Louis I, which decided that all monasteries in the kingdom should follow the Rule of St. Benedict.

Friday, February 12: St. Febronia—Virgin and Martyr
St. Febronia was born in Nisbis, Turkey in the year 284. She was raised at a monastery under the direction of her aunt, Abbess Bryaena. During the Diocletian persecutions, the emperor sent Lysimachus to attack the Christian Church in the region. Two men who served under Lysimachus, Selenos and Primus, arrived at the monastery and subjected Febronia to torture. They promised to stop if she would deny Christ and marry Lysimachus, but she refused. Her tongue was cut out and her teeth smashed. She eventually passed away from her torments. Following her death, Lysimachus became a Christian.

Saturday, February 13: Bl. Archangela Girlandi—Virgin
Bl. Archangela Girlandi was born Eleanora Girlandi to a noble family in Trino, Italy in 1460. She was educated by the Benedictines and wanted to become a Benedictine nun herself. However, when she was about to depart for the abbey to join the order, her horse refused to move. Taking this as a sign, she joined the Carmelites in Parma, Italy instead where she took the name Archangela. As a nun she was known for her ability to work miracles, and her frequent ecstasies and levitations. She became prioress of the convent and later founded a community in Mantua.
BECOME A PARISHIONER

Church membership is an obligation of discipleship and love that derives from being united with Christ. At the Cathedral, active membership is a requirement for the celebration of a marriage or baptism, for one to be eligible to be a Godparent or Conformation sponsor, and for special benefits such as tuition subsidy at a Catholic school. There are certain minimum requirements for parish membership called the precepts of the Church. The following are three of those precepts and how we look upon them in relation to parish membership.

ATTENDANCE AT WEEKLY MASS. The first precept of the Church requires the faithful to participate in the Eucharistic celebration when the Christian community gathers together on the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord (CCC #2042) and on holy days of obligation (CCC #2043). Since the Cathedral’s weekly Mass attendance envelopes are the primary way we determine if parishioners are regularly attending Mass, parishioners must place their envelopes in the collection basket every Sunday regardless of whether one makes a financial contribution or donates online.

RECEIPT OF THE SACRAMENTS. The third and fourth precept of the Church state that the faithful must ensure preparation for the Eucharist by the reception of the Sacrament of Penance at least once a year, and the reception of Holy Communion at least once a year during the Easter season (CCC #2042) and to join in fast and abstinence during Lent.

SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH. The fifth precept of the Church states that the faithful have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to their abilities in a regular, identifiable and meaningful way.

HOW TO REGISTER AS A PARISHIONER

To register as a parishioner of the Cathedral, please visit www.stpatricks.org/join or scan the QR code to the right, and complete the simple online form. Alternatively, paper registration forms are located near each of the entrances of the Cathedral.

WHAT IT MEANS TO BE A KNIGHT

We are Catholic men who lead, serve, protect and defend. We share a desire to be better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors and role models and to put charity and community first.

*Offer good through June 30, 2021; membership open to practical Catholic males age 18 and older.
