FIRST READING: Ez 17:22-24

Thus says the Lord God: I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar, from its topmost branches tear off a tender shoot, and plant it on a high and lofty mountain; on the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it. It shall put forth branches and bear fruit, and become a majestic cedar. Birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it, every winged thing in the shade of its boughs. And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom. As I, the LORD, have spoken, so will I do.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 92:2-3, 11-14, 15-16

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praise to your name, Most High, To proclaim your kindness at dawn and your faithfulness throughout the night. R. The just one shall flourish like the palm tree, like a cedar of Lebanon shall he grow. They that are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God. R. They shall bear fruit even in old age; vigorous and sturdy shall they be, Declaring how just is the LORD, my rock, in whom there is no wrong. R.

SECOND READING: 2 Cor 5:6-10

Brothers and sisters: We are always courageous, although we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous, and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.

ALLELUIA:

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.
Gospel: Mk 4:26-34
Jesus said to the crowds: "This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord the land yields fruit; first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he yields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come." He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade." With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.

Offertory Antiphon (11): Plainsong Mode I, Ps 16:7, 8

I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel. I keep the Lord always before me, with him at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

Offertory Motet: (11) There's a Wideness in God's Mercy—Maurice Besan (1921-2006)

Offertory Hymn (6:30, 7:30, 9, 12:30): Rather, We Thank Thee

1. Father, we thank thee who hast planted Thy holy Name within our hearts.
2. Watch o'er thy Church, O Lord, in mercy. Save it from evil guard it still.

Knowledge and faith and life immortal Jesus thy Son to us imparts.
Strength in it in thy love, unite it. Cleansed and conformed to thy will.
By Whom the words of life were spoken. And in Whose death our sins are dead.

Thou, Lord, didst make all for thy pleasure. Didst give man food for all his days.
As grain once scattered on the hill-sides. Was in this broken bread made one.
Oh, see thy Heart by sorrow broken, here too the tears by Mary shed.

Giving in Christ the Bread eternal. There is the power be the thing the praise.
So from all lands thy Church be gathered unto thy king born by thy Son.
There is this feast more than mere broken, thy Body broken, thy Blood shed.

Words: Diathea c. 100, vs 3 Vincent Olier
Music: BENEDICTIO, Louis Bourgeois (1510-1561)
SANCTUS: 5:30, 9, 12:30

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Mass XI (Orbis Factor)

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

AGNUS DEI: 5:30, 7:30, 9, 12:30

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Mass XI (Orbis Factor)

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis. Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: dona nobis pacem.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

I long for you my Savior; your law is my delight.

COMMUNION CHANT: Plainsong, Mode VII; Ps. 27:4

Unam petii a Domino, hanc requiram: ut inhabitem in domo Domini omnibus diebus vitae meae. One thing I have asked of the Lord, this will I seek after, that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

At Mass—WE GIVE GLORY TO GOD

“Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, ‘Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.’” Luke 2:13-14

When Jesus was born, the angels appeared to the shepherds working in the fields, telling them that the Messiah had been born! Those angels praised God for His goodness, and offered peace on earth now that Jesus was born.

We do the same to begin every Mass (except for Lent and Advent). Before we hear God’s story and partake in Jesus’ Paschal sacrifice, we sing together of God’s love!

The Gloria

After confessing our sins, we move onto the main reason we are at Mass: to worship and glorify God.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For You alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Gloria is sung, chanted, or said every Sunday outside of Advent and Lent, where in the spirit of preparation and anticipation for the coming of the Lord, or His coming Passion, Death, and Resurrection, the Mass becomes more austere. The Gloria is sometimes called the “angelic hymn” because its opening line, as with so many parts of the Mass, is taken from Scripture when the multitude of heavenly angels sing at Jesus’ birth in Luke 2:14. In the hymn, we give God praise and thanks, but we also beg for His mercy. Several titles of Jesus are mentioned. It is common practice at the name of Jesus in the Gloria to bow, as we should do every time Jesus’ name is said in the Mass (with a slighter bow when Mary is mentioned.)
SAINTS OF THE WEEK

Sunday, June 13: St. Anthony of Padua—Confessor and Doctor
St. Anthony was born in 1195 as Fernando Martins in Lisbon, Portugal. At fifteen years of age, he entered the Order of Regular Canons of St. Augustine. In 1221, a group of Franciscans visited and brought relics of five Franciscan martyrs. Inspired by this experience, Fernando left the Canons, and joined the Franciscans, where he took the name “Anthony.” St. Anthony experienced success preaching the Faith in Africa. He then went to Italy, where he met St. Francis of Assisi. He became a professor of theology, and taught in several different cities. Eventually, St. Anthony set out preaching once again, and proclaimed the Gospel to Italy, France, and Spain. Many miraculous occurrences are attributed to the saint. Quote: “Where true poverty is found, there is sufficiency; where there is abundance, there is want.”

Monday, June 14: St. Joseph the Hymnographer—Confessor
St. Joseph was born in Sicily in 816. When he was 14 years old, his family was forced to flee the island after it was invaded. They settled in Thessalonica where Joseph entered the monastery of Latomos. He later moved to Constantinople where he became a defender of venerating religious images during the iconoclast persecutions. Joseph was driven out of Constantinople and captured by pirates on his way to Rome. After being forced into slavery for several years, he was freed and returned to Constantinople where he founded a monastery and wrote numerous canons.

Tuesday, June 15: St. Adelaide—Virgin
St. Adelaide, also known as Aleydis, was born in Schwaerbeek, Belgium in 1204. When she was seven years old she was placed under the care of the nuns at the Cistercian convent of Camera Sanctae Mariae. She was admired for her goodness and humility. Adelaide contracted leprosy which resulted in her having to live in isolation for the remainder of her life. Her physical condition deteriorated causing blindness and paralysis. Despite this intense suffering, she was blessed with visions, ecstasies and the ability to perform miracles.

Wednesday, June 16: St. Benno—Bishop
St. Benno was born to a noble family in Hildesheim, Germany in 1010; the son of Blessed Bezela of Goda. He received his education at St. Michael’s Abbey and became Canon at the imperial chapel in Gozlar. He served as chaplain to Emperor Henry III. In 1066 Benno was appointed Bishop of Meissen. As bishop he enforced clerical discipline, combated simony, and promoted chant. Benno was imprisoned for a year by Emperor Henry IV for opposing lay investiture and state involvement in the Church. His eventual canonization was criticized by Martin Luther.

Thursday, June 17: St. Nectan of Hartland—Hermit and Martyr
St. Nectan was born in Wales sometime during the fifth century. It is believed that he was a son of King Brychan of Brecknock. One day Nectan decided that he felt called to become a monk. With some of his relatives, Nectan set out on a voyage by sea, deciding that he would reside wherever God led him. Nectan’s boat landed at Hartland in Devon. It was there that he spent the remainder of his life as a hermit. He founded numerous churches in Devonshire and Cornwall, England. Nectan was murdered by a pack of robbers.

Friday, June 18: Ss. Mark & Marcellian—Martyrs
Ss. Mark and Marcellian were twin brothers who were born in Rome sometime during the third century. Both men were married with families and both served as deacons in the local church. They were arrested after refusing to sacrifice to the pagan gods. While imprisoned, the brothers successfully converted their guards and were released. However, they were soon recaptured and put to death during the Diocletian persecutions.

Saturday, June 19: Bl. Sebastian Newdigate—Priest and Martyr
Bl. Sebastian Newdigate was born to a noble family in Harefield, England on September 7, 1500. He studied at Cambridge and married. Following the passing of his wife in 1524, Sebastian became a priest. He served as privy counselor to King Henry VIII and enjoyed a close relationship with the king. He eventually joined the Carthusians. After Henry enacted the Act of Supremacy, Sebastian and his order refused to accept it. The Carthusian monks were arrested and Sebastian was put to death at Tyburn on June 19, 1535.

BECOME A PARISHIONER

Church membership is an obligation of discipleship and love that derives from being united with Christ. At the Cathedral, active membership is a requirement for the celebration of a marriage or baptism, for one to be eligible to be a Godparent or Confirmation sponsor, and for special benefits such as tuition subsidy at a Catholic school. There are certain minimum requirements for parish membership called the precepts of the Church. The following are three of those precepts and how we look upon them in relation to parish membership.

ATTENDANCE AT WEEKLY MASS. The first precept of the Church requires the faithful to participate in the Eucharistic celebration when the Christian community gathers together on the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord (CCC #2042) and on holy days of obligation (CCC #2043). Since the Cathedral’s weekly Mass attendance envelopes are the primary way we determine if parishioners are regularly attending Mass, parishioners must place their envelopes in the collection basket every Sunday regardless of whether one makes a financial contribution or donates online.

RECEIPT OF THE SACRAMENTS. The third and fourth precept of the Church state that the faithful must ensure preparation for the Eucharist by the reception of the Sacrament of Penance at least once a year, and the reception of Holy Communion at least once a year during the Easter season (CCC #2042) and to join in fast and abstinence during Lent.

SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH. The fifth precept of the Church states that the faithful have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to their abilities in a regular, identifiable and meaningful way.
