Mission Statement

We the members of The Cathedral of St. Patrick, through the mercy of God the Father, the grace of Jesus Christ, and the power of the Holy Spirit, seek to grow continually in knowledge of and love for God. We strive to enable ongoing conversion to Christ of our adults, to inspire faith in our children, and to be witnesses of His love in the greater community.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

The Stations of the Cross will be prayed in the Cathedral each Friday during Lent at 7:00 pm. All are invited to participate. Please be aware that due to the Coronavirus, we will not be having our traditional Lenten soup dinners prior to the praying of the Stations this year.

MEN’S CONFERENCE

The 11th annual Catholic Men’s Conference of the Carolinas will be held at St. Thomas Aquinas Church on Saturday, March 20th. Event includes Catholic speakers, the Mass, Confessions, the Rosary, Adoration and lunch. Sign up online at:
www.catholicmenofthecarolinas.org

Mass Intentions
To schedule a Mass intention, please contact the parish office at (704) 334-2283, or stop by in person. An individual can have a Mass requested for anyone living or deceased.

Sacrament of Baptism
The Sacrament of Baptism is ordinarily celebrated at the Cathedral on Sunday afternoons at 1:30 pm. Prior to scheduling your child’s Baptism, parents will need to participate in our Baptismal Preparation Class held on the third Sunday of each month at 10 am and complete the Baptismal registration form. Please visit www.stpatricks.org/sacraments/baptism to register for the preparation class and download the form.

Have a Prayer Request?
Send an e-mail to: prayerworks@stpatricks.org with your request. The request will be added to our prayer chain and the intention will be remembered by our prayer team. Simply e-mail your contact information and you’ll be added to the prayer list.

Vigilia de oración
Los jueves a las 6 pm, nos reunimos en la Catedral para una Vigilia de Adoración por la Paz y la Justicia en Nicaragua, que en estos últimos meses está pasando por momentos turbulentos y ataques físicos contra la Iglesia Católica, sus templos, y sus Obispos. Todos son bienvenidos a unirse a la Adoración, rezar el Santo Rosario y la corona de adoración y reparación, y terminando con la oración de exorcismo de San Miguel Arcángel. La vigilia de oración es en español.

Jesus as the Door

“So Jesus again said to them, 'Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not heed them. I am the door; if any one enters by me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly’” (John 10: 7-10). Jesus is the door (in the NABRE, the translation comes out as gate) to the Father, the door to eternal life. He is the entrance to mercy, to holiness, and to salvation. He is the only entrance to Heaven. All those that came before Him were thieves and robbers, all that come after are charlatans. As St. Peter, filled by the Holy Spirit, says, “there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved” (Acts 4: 12). Jesus is not the doorman, He does not simply open the door for us, He is the door. We must enter into and through Him if we are to truly be Christians. In ancient times, a shepherd would lie at the entrance, the gate or the door, to the sheep in at night; protecting his sheep. Jesus does this for us perfectly; when we abide in Him we are protected perfectly from the wicked attacks of the devil and the world.

The miracle which goes with this statement is Christ walking on water. Jesus comes to His disciples as they struggle on their boat through heavy seas and storms. They are afraid but He reassures them, “It is I, do not be afraid” (John 6: 20). He also invites Peter to come to Him, and saved him when Peter faltered in his faith. Jesus protects us always; as long as we have faith in Him we need not fear anything. He is the entrance into the mysteries. If you notice, Peter actually asks the Lord first to call him to Him. This is what Jesus tells us to do in Matthew 7: 7, “Ask, and it will be given you; seek and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.” Jesus is this door upon which we must knock, He is what we must seek, and who we must ask, as St. Peter did. The Sacrament connected to the statement and sign is Holy Orders. As St. Peter before them, priests are called to lead, to make tough choices, to step out into the unknown trusting in God (and calling out to Jesus for help anytime they fail, as St. Peter did). They must go out into the deep. Especially in today’s world, where celibacy is mocked and thought impossible, they must trust in Christ’s grace and know it to be the only way they will not fall, drowning in the roaring waters of worldliness. Priests must also act in persona Christi, officially and ontologically in the Sacraments, like during Mass and Confession, but spiritually all the time, loving their flock like Christ. They must be the shepherd that lies at the opening to the sheep pen, protecting all their parishioners from the wolves and horrors of the world, teaching them all the truths necessary for them to follow Christ faithfully, even and especially when it is hard and against the spirit of modern culture.

SAINTS IN TRAINING
Formation for young children learning the Faith to become saints

John’s Gospel tells us that JESUS IS OUR DOOR

John’s Gospel uses signs and “I Am” statements to SHOW us that Jesus is God. Unlike the three synoptic Gospels, which tell us the Good News, John SHOWS us the Good News!

“When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they began to be afraid. But he said to them, ‘It is I. Do not be afraid.’” John 6: 19-20

The disciples were on their way to Capernaum when a strong wind began to stir up the waters. They saw Jesus walking toward them on the water. They were afraid seeing him in the dark—but He assured them there was nothing to fear.

Jesus tells us that He is the door—a door requires solid ground, and we can walk through it to safety. We are always safe when Jesus is our solid ground.
SAINTS OF THE WEEK

Sunday, March 7: Ss. Perpetua & Felicity—Martyrs
St. Perpetua was a noblewoman and St. Felicity was a slave, both of whom who resided in Carthage. When Perpetua decided to follow in her mother’s path and become a Christian, her father became upset and physically attacked her. She left his home and was baptized. Shortly after, she was imprisoned along with Felicity and several other Christians during the persecutions of the Emperor Severus. While in prison, Felicity, who was pregnant, gave birth to a baby girl just two days before her death, who was taken to a safe Christian home. When the group of Christians refused to renounce Christ, they were beaten, and sent into the arena to be eaten by beasts. Perpetua and Felicity were singled out to be beheaded by the executioners.

Monday, March 8: St. Julian of Toledo—Bishop
St. Julian was born to a Jewish family in Toledo, Spain in 642, though he was raised a Christian and attended the Cathedral school for his education. Julian became a monk at Agali under the leadership of St. Eugene. He later became abbot and was appointed bishop in 680. Julian moved his see to Toledo and became the first bishop to govern the entire Iberian peninsula. During his bishopric he revised the Mozarabic Liturgy, conducted multiple synods, and was a prolific writer, especially on the topic of death.

Tuesday, March 9: St. Gregory of Nyssa—Bishop
St. Gregory was born in Turkey sometime around the year 335. He was the son of two saints, and had two siblings who were also named saints (Basil the Great and Macrina). Gregory attended the monastery of his brother St. Basil before being appointed Bishop of Nyssa in the year 371. He ran afoul of the Arian heretics and was forced out of his position in 376. Two years later he was allowed to return to see his see by Valens. Gregory wrote numerous works including The Catechetical Oration, The Life of Moses, and The Life of St. Macrina.

Wednesday, March 10: St. Marcarius of Jerusalem—Bishop
St. Marcarius was born in Jerusalem sometime during the late third century. He came Bishop of Jerusalem in 314 and worked to combat the Arian heresy. Marcarius participated in the Council of Nicaea which produced the Nicene Creed. When St. Helena believed that she had discovered the True Cross of Christ, Marcarius encouraged her to have an ill woman touch it to see if she was cured. The woman was cured of her illness. At the order of Emperor Constantine, Marcarius oversaw construction of a basilica at the site of Christ’s sepulcher.

Thursday, March 11: St. Eulogius of Cordoba—Priest and Martyr
St. Eulogius was born in Cordoba, Spain in the early ninth century during a period of Muslim occupation and persecutions. He was a priest and was arrested with other clergy and imprisoned. In jail, he regularly read the Bible to other prisoners, and wrote to Flora and Mary, two women who were being threatened by authorities for converting to Christianity. Eulogius was eventually released and was appointed Archbishop of Cordoba. Before his consecration as bishop, he was arrested for aiding a convert named Leocritia. Given the chance to save his life by renouncing Christ, he instead began to recite from the Bible and was immediately put to death by beheading on March 11, 857.

Friday, March 12: St. Paul Aurelian—Bishop
St. Paul Aurelian was born in Glamorgan, Wales in the sixth century, the son of a Welsh chieftain. As a youth he studied at the Ynys Byr monastery under St. Illtyd. He then lived for a time as a hermit before being ordained a priest. Paul was asked by a king in Brittany to preach Christianity to his people, so he traveled to Caldey Island and Quessant and founded a monastery at PorzPol. Despite his objections, Paul humbly accepted being consecrated a bishop. During his life he is said to have performed a number of miracles.

Saturday, March 13: Bl. Agnello of Pisa—Confessor
Bl. Agnello was born in Pisa, Italy to a wealthy family around 1195. When St. Francis of Assisi visited Pisa in 1212, he admitted Agnello into the Franciscan order. Agnello then travelled to Paris where he resided at the Franciscan friary and served as its guardian. In 1224, Agnello and eight other men were commissioned by St. Francis to establish a province in England. They stopped in Canterbury and later moved on to London. At the time of his death, Agnello had helped establish 43 friaries in England.

STEWARDSHIP as a way of life

BECOME A PARISHIONER

Church membership is an obligation of discipleship and love that derives from being united with Christ. At the Cathedral, active membership is a requirement for the celebration of a marriage or baptism, for one to be eligible to be a Godparent or Conformation sponsor, and for special benefits such as tuition subsidy at a Catholic school. There are certain minimum requirements for parish membership called the precepts of the Church. The following are three of those precepts and how we look upon them in relation to parish membership.

ATTENDANCE AT WEEKLY MASS. The first precept of the Church requires the faithful to participate in the Eucharistic celebration when the Christian community gathers together on the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord (CCC #2042) and on holy days of obligation (CCC #2043). Since the Cathedral’s weekly Mass attendance envelopes are the primary way we determine if parishioners are regularly attending Mass, parishioners must place their envelopes in the collection basket every Sunday regardless of whether one makes a financial contribution or donates online.

RECEIPT OF THE SACRAMENTS. The third and fourth precept of the Church state that the faithful must ensure preparation for the Eucharist by the reception of the Sacrament of Penance at least once a year, and the reception of Holy Communion at least once a year during the Easter season (CCC #2042) and to join in fast and abstinence during Lent.

SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH. The fifth precept of the Church states that the faithful have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to their abilities in a regular, identifiable and meaningful way.

HOW TO REGISTER AS A PARISHIONER

To register as a parishioner of the Cathedral, please visit www.stpatricks.org/join or scan the QR code to the right, and complete the simple online form. Alternatively, paper registration forms are located near each of the entrances of the Cathedral.

We’re Going Virtual!

The Rectory Renovation Committee extends our gratitude to our fellow parishioners for their generous response to our initial fundraising campaign outreach. With those donations and pledges in hand, we can continue our campaign by utilizing the existing monthly Capital Improvements envelopes.

Beginning immediately, all contributions collected through the monthly second collection using the Capital Improvements envelopes (or your online donation) will go toward our Rectory Renovation Campaign.

We Need You!

Please prayerfully consider:

+ Continuing
+ Starting, or
+ Increasing your monthly contribution to the Capital Improvements

St. John Vianney wrote that “the priest is not a priest for himself; he does not give himself absolution; he does not administer the Sacraments to himself. He is not for himself, he is for you.”

Just as our priests are for us, we, in turn, can support their holiness and personal needs through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. As we journey through this Lenten season, may we continue to care for our shepherds as they lead us closer to the Risen Christ.
