Prelude: Communion (Office for the Ascension) – Charles Tournemire (1870-1939)

Entrance Hymn: Hail the Day That Sees Him Rise

1. Hail the day that sees him rise to his throne above the skies;
   Lift your heads, eternal gates;
   See! he shows the prints of love.
   Praises of thy eternal reign,
   Alleluia!

2. There for him high triumph waits;
   ALLELUIA!
   En ters now the highest heaven!
   Take the King of glory in.
   Blessings on his Church be low.
   Alleluia!

3. Still for us he intercedes;
   ALLELUIA!
   Be the first fruits of our race.
   Find our heav’n of heav’n in thee.
   Alleluia!

Introit (11): Plainsong, Mode VII; Acts 1:11

Ye men of Galilee, why wonder you, looking up to heaven? Alleluia. He shall so come as you have seen him going up into heaven, Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Kyrie & Gloria (5:30, 9, 12:30):
FIRST READING: Acts 1:1-11
In the first book, Theophilus, I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While he was with them, he enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for "the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit." When they had gathered together they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" He answered them, "It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 118:1, 89, 21-23, 26, 28, 29

All you peoples, clap your hands, shout to God with cries of gladness, For the LORD, the Most High, the awesome, is the great king over all the earth. R. God mounts his throne amid shouts of joy, the LORD, amid trumpet blasts. Sing praise to God, sing praise; sing praise to our king, sing praise. R. For king of all the earth is God; sing hymns of praise. God reigns over the nations, God sits upon his holy throne. R.

SECOND READING: Eph 1:17-23
Brothers and sisters: May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him. May the eyes of your hearts be enlightened, that you may know what is the hope that belongs to his call, what are the riches of glory in his inheritance among the holy ones, and what is the surpassing greatness of his power for us who believe, in accord with the exercise of his great might, which he worked in Christ, raising him from the dead and seating him at his right hand in the heavens, far above every principality, authority, power, and dominion, and every name that is named not only in this age but also in the one to come. And he put all things beneath his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of the one who fills all things in every way.

ALLELUIA:

GOSPEL: Mk 16:15-20
Jesus said to his disciples: “Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved; whoever does not believe will be condemned. These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will drive out demons, they will speak new languages. They will pick up serpents with their hands, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not harm them. They will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.” So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God. But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs.

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON (11): Plainsong, Mode I; Ps 47:6
Ascendit Deus in jubilatione, et Dominus in veste tubae, alleluia. God is ascended with a shout, and the Lord with the sound of a trumpet, alleluia.

OFFERTORY MOTET: (11) Viri Galilaei–Dulcis Couillart (fl. 1534)
Men of Galilee, why wonder you, looking up to heaven? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven. Alleluia

OFFERTORY HYMN (5:30, 7:30, 9, 12.30): Eternal Monarch, King Most Hig

1. Eternal Monarch, King most high, whose blood hath brought redemption nigh.
2. Ascending to the throne of might, and seated at the Father’s right.
3. Yeangels tremble when they see how changed is our humanity.
4. Be thou our joy and strength, de-fende, who art our future re-con-pencion.
5. O ris-en Christ, ascended Lord, all praise to thee let earth ac-cord.

God's Beloved People—DAVID

King Saul was the first Hebrew king, but did not always follow God’s laws. So God decided to find a new young man to prepare to be the king, rather than give the kingship to one of Saul’s sons. God sent his prophet, Samuel, to Jesse. Jesse had seven sons, and God said one of those sons would be the next king. God said no to all of the oldest six sons—he didn’t see the littlest son’s size or strength, but saw the goodness of his heart. Even though David was small and only a shepherd, God knew he would be a faithful leader to the Hebrew people!

David proved his reliance on God when he slew Goliath! And he was wise to hide from the jealous King Saul. When it was his turn to be anointed the king, David reigned for 40 years. He united the kingdom and always praised and trusted in God. And when he made mistakes, he was humble and repented. David wrote many of the Psalms. And he taught his son, Solomon, to love the Lord. God promised David that all future kings would come from his family line—leading up to Jesus!

“The LORD is my shepherd; I have everything I need. He lets me rest in green pastures. He leads me to calm water. He gives me new strength. He leads me on paths that are right for the good of his name. Even though I walk through a very dark valley, I will not be afraid, because you are with me. Your rod and your staff comfort me.” Psalm 23.
Sunday, May 16: St. Ubald Baldassini—Bishop

St. Ubald Baldassini was born to a noble family in Gubbio, Italy in 1084. His father passed away at a young age and his mother suffered from a neurological ailment which left him an orphan. He was raised and educated by his uncle, the Bishop of Gubbio. Ubald was ordained a deacon and served in the Cathedral where he helped implement reforms. He eventually left to become a hermit. Ubald was persuaded to return and was appointed Bishop of Perugia, but he refused the honor. Two years later in 1128 he was appointed Bishop of Gubbio, the same position previously held by his uncle. In this role he worked to dissuade Emperor Frederick II from attacking the city.

Monday, May 17: Bl. Antonia Mesina—Virgin and Martyr

Bl. Antonia Mesina was born to a poor family in Orgosolo, Italy on June 21, 1919. She attended school for four years before dropping out to perform housework for her now-bedridden mother. She joined Catholic Action when she was ten years old and became a successful recruiter for the organization. On May 17, 1935, after attending Mass with a friend, she went to gather firewood. Antonia was approached by a man named Ignazio who attempted to rape her. She escaped from him twice, but he caught up to her a third time and struck her with a rock 74 times until she passed away. Ignazio was tried for murder and sentenced to death by firing squad the following year.

Tuesday, May 18: St. Theodotus of Ancyra—Martyr

Theodotus was born in Ancyra, Turkey sometime during the third century. He was married and worked as an innkeeper. Theodotus was known for his virtue and charity. During the Diocletian persecutions, seven virgins were martyred for refusing to don pagan priestess robes and partake in the festivals. Theodotus located their bodies and gave them a proper Christian burial. He was betrayed to the pagan authorities for this act of charity and underwent torture before being killed by the sword around the year 303.

Wednesday, May 19: St. Ivo of Kermartin—Priest

St. Ivo Helroy was born to a noble family in Kermartin, Brittany on October 17, 1253. During his education he studied civil and canon law. As a lawyer, he regularly defended the poor free of charge and fought to defend the rights of the Church against secular control. He became a Franciscan tertiary and served as a diocesan judge. Ivo left behind the legal profession and was ordained to the priesthood in 1284. He was known for his holiness, regular fasting, wearing a hair shirt under his clothing, and performing miracles. While on his deathbed someone called for a doctor to which Ivo replied that his doctor was Jesus Christ.

Thursday, May 20: St. Bernardine of Siena—Confessor

Born in Massa Marittima in the Republic of Siena, St. Bernadine was orphaned at a young age and was raised by his devout aunt. He joined the Confraternity of Our Lady, where he cared for the sick, especially during the great pestilence of 1400. Four years later, he became a Father of the Strict Observance of St. Francis. As a friar, he preached devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus. In great humility, St. Bernardine thrice turned down appointments to become a bishop. He was appointed Vicar General of his order, but he later resigned that role to resume preaching the Gospel until his death in 1444.

Friday, May 21: St. Mateo Correa Magallanes—Priest and Martyr

St. Mateo Magallanes was born to a poor family in Tepechitlán, Mexico on July 23, 1866. He was ordained a priest on August 20, 1893. As a priest he was known for his energy and successful preaching. Mateo administered First Holy Communion to the dying parishioner. He quickly consumed the host to prevent its desecration. While imprisoned, Mateo was asked by a military official to hear the Confessions of some members of the Cristeros. Being a faithful priest, he accepted the request. Following this, the military official ordered Mateo to reveal the contents of the Confessions, which he refused to do as he was bound by the Sacramental Seal. He was shot to death by a firing squad on February 6, 1927.

Saturday, May 22: St. Quiteria—Virgin and Martyr

St. Quiteria was born to a noble family in Braga, Portugal sometime during the second century. She was the daughter of Lucius Catilius Servæs, who served as Roman governor of Gallaecia and Lusitania. Her father wanted her to renounce the Christian Faith she had embraced and marry a Roman nobleman. She refused and fled home. Her father hired some men to track her down and they located her at Aire-sur-l’Adour, in Gascony. The men beheaded Quiteria.

BECOME A PARISHIONER

Church membership is an obligation of discipleship and love that derives from being united with Christ. At the Cathedral, active membership is a requirement for the celebration of a marriage or baptism, for one to be eligible to be a Godparent or Confirmation sponsor, and for special benefits such as tuition subsidy at a Catholic school. There are certain minimum requirements for parish membership called the precepts of the Church. The following are three of those precepts and how we look upon them in relation to parish membership.

ATTENDANCE AT WEEKLY MASS. The first precept of the Church requires the faithful to participate in the Eucharistic celebration when the Christian community gathers together on the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord (CCC #2042) and on holy days of obligation (CCC #2043). Since the Cathedral’s weekly Mass attendance envelopes are the primary way we determine if parishioners are regularly attending Mass, parishioners must place their envelopes in the collection basket every Sunday regardless of whether one makes a financial contribution or donates online.

RECEIPT OF THE SACRAMENTS. The third and fourth precept of the Church state that the faithful must ensure preparation for the Eucharist by the reception of the Sacrament of Penance at least once a year, and the reception of Holy Communion at least once a year during the Easter season (CCC #2042) and to join in fast and abstinence during Lent.

SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH. The fifth precept of the Church states that the faithful have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to their abilities in a regular, identifiable and meaningful way.

HOW TO REGISTER AS A PARISHIONER

To register as a parishioner of the Cathedral, please visit www.stpatricks.org/join or scan the QR code to the right, and complete the simple online form. Alternatively, paper registration forms are located near each of the entrances of the Cathedral.
