DIOCESE OF CHARLOTTE
Readings & Music for the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity

PRELUDE: Prelude in B—Camille Saint-Saëns (1835-1921)

ENTRANCE HYMN: Holy, Holy Holy, Lord God Almighty

INTROIT (11): Plainsong, Mode VIII, Tb 12: 6

Benedicta sit sancta Trinitas, atque indivisa Unitas: confitemur et, quia fecit nobiscum misericordiam suam.

Kyrie & Gloria (5:30, 9, 12:30):

Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison.

Glorify you, we bless you, we adore you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God heavenly King,

O God almighty Father, Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,

Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer, you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.
Moses said to the people: "Ask now of the days of old, before your time, ever since God created man upon the earth, ask from one end of the sky to the other: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of? Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you did, and live? Or did any god venture to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by testings, by signs and wonders, by war, with strong hand and outstretched arm, and by great terrors, all of which the LORD, your God, did for you in Egypt before your very eyes? This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other. You must keep his statutes and commandments that I enjoin on you today, that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may have long life on the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you forever."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 33:4-5, 6, 9, 18-19, 20, 22

R. By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all their host. For he spoke, and it was made; he commanded, and it stood forth. R. Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own. See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness, To deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine. R. Our soul waits for the LORD, who is our help and our shield. May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you. R.

SECOND READING: Rom 8:14-17

Brothers and sisters: For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, “Abba, Father!” The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.
ALLELUIA:

Al-le-lu-ia, Al-le-lu-ia, Al-le-lu-ia.

GOSPEL: Mt 28:16-20
The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON (11): Plainsong, Mode I, Ps 47:6
Benedictus sit Deus Pater, unigenitus que Dei Filius, Sanctus quoque Spiritus: quia fecit nobiscum misericordiam suam Blessed be God the Father, and the only-begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, because he has shown his mercy to us.

Next Sunday, June 6th, is the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. We will have our traditional Corpus Christi procession following the 9 am Mass.
At Mass: WE STAND & SING

Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. We resume Ordinary Time in the Catholic Church. What a more beautiful way to celebrate than with song! Singing during Mass is a beautiful way to show praise and worship to our Lord. We join the saints and angels every time we sing!

We sing hymns to begin Mass. We are standing when we sing to begin Mass. Standing shows us united in prayer as we welcome Jesus, in the person of the priest, processing to the sanctuary. Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises! (Psalm 98:4)

Can you fill in the lyrics to this hymn, and then try to sing?
SAINTS OF THE WEEK

Sunday, May 30: Bl. Thomas Cottam—Priest and Martyr
Bl. Thomas Cottam was born into a Protestant family in Dilworth, England in 1549. While studying at Oxford he was converted to the Catholic Faith by Thomas Pound. He traveled to Douai where he was ordained a deacon in 1577. Hoping to serve the missions in India, Thomas entered the Jesuits on April 8, 1579. He was ordained to the priesthood in May 1580. On a return trip to England, Thomas was betrayed by a spy and arrested for being a Catholic priest. After being tortured in the Tower of London, he was hanged, drawn and quartered.

Monday, May 31: Ss. Cantius, Cantianus, Cantianilla, & Protus—Martyrs
Ss. Cantius, Cantianus and Cantianilla were born sometime in the third century into the noble Roman Anicii family. They were orphaned at a young age and taken in by St. Protus who raised them as Christians. During the Diocletian persecutions, they freed their slaves and gave away much of their wealth to the poor before travelling to Aquileia to visit St. Chrysogonus in prison. They were captured on the way and were threatened to offer sacrifice to the pagan gods under penalty of death. The siblings refused, and they were beheaded in the year 303.

Tuesday, June 1: St. Annibale Maria di Francia —Priest
St. Annibale was born to a noble family in Messina, Italy on July 5, 1851. When he was seventeen years old, while praying before the Eucharist, he felt called to the priesthood. He was ordained on March 16, 1878 and immediately set out ministering to the poor in the Avignone ghetto. He established numerous programs to aid the poor including the Anthonian orphanages under the patronage of St. Anthony. Annibale founded the Daughters of Divine Zeal and the Rogationists to staff these ministries. He also began the Holy Alliance and Pious Union of the Evangelical Rogation and created the publication God and Neighbor. He is said to have received a vision of Our Lady before passing away.

Wednesday, June 2: St. Elmo—Bishop and Martyr
St. Elmo, also known as Erasmus, was born in Italy sometime during the 3rd century. He served as Bishop of Formiae. During a period of persecutions he fled and lived alone as a hermit on Mount Lebanon for about seven years until he was instructed by an angel to return. On the way back he was arrested, but an angel released him from prison. Elmo then went to Illyricum where he is said to have raised a person from the dead. This drew numerous conversions and got the attention of Emperor Maximian who had Elmo arrested. Elmo was subjected to severe tortures and attempts to take his life, but he continued to proclaim Christ. He ultimately had his intestines ripped out with hot iron hooks. The weather phenomenon known as “St. Elmo’s Fire” is named after him.

Thursday, June 3: St. John Grande—Priest
St. John Grande was born John Román in Carmona, Spain on March 6, 1546. He worked as a merchant and owned a linen shop, but abandoned the secular world to live as a hermit. At this point he took the name John Grande Pecador (“the great sinner”). John eventually abandoned the life of a hermit and provided care for prisoners. He also worked to save women from prostitution. John received a large sum from a rich couple which he used to found a hospital. In 1574 he gave the hospital to the Brothers Hospitallers of St. John of God and joined the order. He passed away on June 3, 1600 after contracting the plague.

Friday, June 4: St. Petroc—Hermit
St. Petroc was born in Wales, and is believed to have been the son of Welsh royalty. Renouncing his wealth, he studied in Ireland and became a monk. St. Petroc moved to England, and founded a monastery in Padstow. He left for the Indian Ocean where he settled on a small island and lived as a hermit. After some time, St. Petroc returned to Padstow to establish several more chapels. He once again began to live as a hermit, and attracted many followers who reported witnessing the saint perform miracles. St. Petroc died around 564.

Saturday, June 5: St. Boniface—Bishop and Martyr
St. Boniface was born in 680 in Devonshire, England. He studied in a Benedictine monastery and became a monk. He left the monastery, and joined the Diocese of Winchester, where he was ordained a priest at the age of 30. He made several missionary trips to preach the Catholic Faith to unbelievers. St. Boniface was selected as abbot, but resigned that post to continue his missionary duties. Around 718, St. Boniface began to preach in Germany. In one instance, he took an axe to the shrine of Thor, “god of thunder,” and gained many converts. He established a num-ber of dioceses in Germany, and became the Archbishop of Mainz. St. Boniface was martyred June 5, 755 on a missionary trip to Frisia. He is the patron saint of Germany.

HOW TO REGISTER AS A PARISHIONER

To register as a parishioner of the Cathedral, please visit www.stpatricks.org/join or scan the QR code to the right, and complete the simple online form. Alternatively, paper registration forms are located near each of the entrances of the Cathedral.

ATTENDANCE AT WEEKLY MASS. The first precept of the Church requires the faithful to participate in the Eucharistic celebration when the Christian community gathers together on the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord (CCC #2042) and on holy days of obligation (CCC #2043). Since the Cathedral’s weekly Mass attendance envelopes are the primary way we determine if parishioners are regularly attending Mass, parishioners must place their envelopes in the collection basket every Sunday regardless of whether one makes a financial contribution or donates online.

RECEIPT OF THE SACRAMENTS. The third and fourth precept of the Church state that the faithful must ensure preparation for the Eucharist by the reception of the Sacrament of Penance at least once a year, and the reception of Holy Communion at least once a year during the Easter season (CCC #2042) and to join in fast and abstinence during Lent.

SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH. The fifth precept of the Church states that the faithful have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to their abilities in a regular, identifiable and meaningful way.
