During Lent there are no organ voluntaries except on the 4th Sunday of Lent.

INTROIT: Plainsong, Mode III; PS27:8, 9

Tibi dixit cor meum, quæsivi vultum tuum, vultum tuum, Dómine, requiram: ne avértas fáciem tuam a me. (PS 27:1)
Dominus illuminatio mea, et salus mea, quem timebo? Gloria Patri...

My heart has said to you, I have sought your face; your face, O Lord, will I seek: turn not away your face from me. (PS 27:1) The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom shall I fear? Glory to the Father...

God put Abraham to the test. He called to him, “Abraham!” “Here I am!” he replied. Then God said: “Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you.” When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the LORD’s messenger called to him from heaven, “Abraham, Abraham!” “Here I am!” he answered. “Do not lay your hand on the boy,” said the messenger. “Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son.” As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son. Again the LORD’s messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: “I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 116:10, 15, 16-17, 18-19

Your I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living. I believed, even when I said, “I am greatly afflicted.” Precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones. O LORD, I am your servant; I am your servant, the son of your handmaid; you have loosed my bonds. To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving, and I will call upon the name of the LORD. My vows to the LORD I will pay in the presence of all his people, In the courts of the house of the LORD, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

SECOND READING: Mk 9:2-10

Brothers and sisters: If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him? Who will bring a charge against God’s chosen ones? It is God who acquits us, who will condemn? Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised— who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

GOSPEL: Mk 1:12-15

The Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, “Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.” Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON: Plainsong, Mode II, PS 119: 47. 48a (with vs 57, 58)

Meditabor in mandatis tuis, quae dilexi valde: et levabo manus meas ad mandata tua, quae dilexi. I will meditate on your commandments, which I have loved exceedingly: and I will lift up my hands to your commandments, which I have loved.
OFFERTORY MOTET (11): Ecce Nunc Tempus Acceptabile—Francisco Guerrero (1528-1599)

Behold, now is the acceptable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation. Let us conduct ourselves with the utmost patience.

COMMUNION CHANT: Plainsong, Mode I, MT 17:9 (with additional vs from PS 45)

Visionem quam vidistis, nemini dixeritis, donec a mortuis resurgat Filius hominis. Tell no one of the vision you have seen, until the Son of Man is risen from the dead.

COMMUNION MOTET (7): De Profundis—Antonio Salieri (1750-1825)

Out of the depths I have cried to you, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication. If you, O Lord, will mark iniquities: Lord, who shall stand it. For with you there is merciful forgiveness: and by reason of your law, I have waited for you, O Lord. My soul has relied on his word: my soul has hoped in the Lord. From the morning watch even until night, let Israel hope in the Lord. Because with the Lord there is mercy: and with him plentiful redemption. And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.
